DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 3, 2003 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 23, 25-31 and 33-58 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sugiura et al and 5,399,363 (Liversidge et al) for the reasons given in Paper No. 13 of June 19, 2002.

Applicant argues that Sugiura teaches only slightly inhibiting effect on six of the tumors and moderate inhibition of one tumor and no inhibitory effect on 18 other kinds of tumor. Applicant further argues that one reading Muckter would conclude that thalidomide was not active against cancer. This is not persuasive. No one compound is effective against all cancers. A compound can be operative against one or more kinds of cancer while being in operative against others.

Applicant also argues that Grabstald concludes "in the absence of more definite evidence of pharmacologic or anticancer effects in man, we conclude that further random trials of this drug against cancer in man are not indicated." This is not persuasive, since it is an opinion. The data show that thalidomide is effective against certain cancers, which would lead one of ordinary skill in the art to conclude that it can be used to treat them.

Applicant's argument that at the time of Liversidge thalidomide was not considered useful for the treatment of cancer is not persuasive, since he discloses that thalidomide is an anticancer agent.

Claims 23, 25-31 and 33-58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Muckter or Grabstald et al.

Muckter discloses (page 533, both columns) that the latent period of manifestation of tumors increased with thalidomide and that "thalidomide retarded in a most impressive fashion the manifestation and growth of tumors induced in rats by the carcinogen DMBA. Grabstald discloses (page 301) the disappearance of pulmonary metastases in a patient who was given thalidomide.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 23, 25-31 and 33-58 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 5,629,327. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because '327 discloses a method of using thalidomide to treat undesired angiogenesis. Since thalidomide inhibits cancer by preventing said undesired angiogenesis, it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art that by preventing undesired angiogenesis the formation or growth of tumors sensitive to thalidomide would be inhibited.
